

Women, the World Wars, and the Springfield Armory
Lesson 4 Role Play Questions

Students playing the role of worker should be prepared to answer the following questions based on the profiles developed in class and the information available on the Springfield Armory website. Students playing the role on reporter should be prepared to answer the following questions and determine, based on the answers given, which workers are from WWI and which are from WWII.

What job do you hold at the Springfield Armory?

What did you do before you worked at the Springfield Armory?

How old are you?

Are you married?

Do you have any children? If so, how many?

Were you born in the United States? If not, what country were you born in?

Have you ever witnessed an accident at the Springfield Armory?

Do you have to wear a hairnet?
